TAKE TIME TO READ THIS . . .

The thought of reading the Bible can be intimidating. It's a big book. It's also a controversial book. One could wonder if there is any hope of understanding it. But be encouraged, it is not as time consuming as one might think to master the Bible's central message. Many people watch more hours of TV in one week than it takes the average person to complete this study. Now here are a few pointers before you begin:

1. Learn for the sake of knowing for yourself. The point of this book is to study the main theme of the Bible. Whether you believe it or not is up to you. There is no need to argue your present beliefs or future conclusions.
2. Get the big picture first. Don't impede the study's momentum. Unless it is a question needed to clarify subject material being studied, write your query down and save it till the end. Once you have the big picture in mind, you can go back and fill in the details by getting your questions answered.
3. Learn one section at a time, in the sequence it is written. This is not the type of Bible study where you can jump around from one lesson to another. It is important that you read each chapter section in BY THIS NAME and answer the questions in this WORKBOOK first, before you move on to the next section. If you answer a question incorrectly, look it up on the page as indicated and briefly review the material. It will only take a minute, but it will help you immensely as you read deeper into the book. Be alert for those questions that may appear from content studied in previous sections.
4. If stopping and answering the questions in this WORKBOOK seems to disrupt the flow of the story in your mind, then set it aside and just read BY THIS NAME.
5. Make sure you complete the book. To make a final judgment about the Bible's primary message before finishing the study entails a high risk of drawing wrong conclusions.

. . . continued

6. The questions in this WorkBook should not be viewed as an exam or test. They are review questions only—to help you make sure you have a grip on the key points. Don't be insulted if you find a question too easy—it means you understand the material. Others may find it hard. Some of them can be a little tricky! In a number of instances, more than one answer is right. Mark all that are correct. For fill in the blank questions, the number of letters in the word are indicated by the line spaces.
7. The content under the label FOR FURTHER CONSIDERATION not only reinforces what you have learned, but helps develop Bible navigation skills.
8. To maximize your comprehension, you also need:
  - A. A Bible: You can do the whole study without one, but for best results obtain a Bible that has both the Old and New Testaments. Since the optional verses appearing in the sections titled For further consideration are taken from the Bible translation called the New International Version® NIV®, we would suggest you consider obtaining a copy of that translation.
  - B. By This Name: This book includes approximately 1570 Bible verses quoted with accompanying commentary. Though it's your study guide, it reads like a storybook, not a textbook. If you don't have this book, see the back page to order a copy. The WorkBook answers are keyed to this book.

Now open By This Name, read the Preface on page vii, and begin with Chapter One.

Enjoy your study!

What the Bible says about God:

Blessed are they who . . . seek him with all their hearts.

Psalm 119:2

. . . he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. Hebrews 11:6

 False

FOR FURTHER CONSIDERATION:

1. In ancient times, a prophet was a messenger who passed on God's words to the people. The message usually addressed aspects of daily living, but almost invariably, the prophet's message included things yet to come. This foretelling of the future had a practical aspect to it. It was a potent test to determine whether a prophet was genuine.

If what a prophet proclaims in the name of the LORD does not take place or come true, that is a message the LORD has not spoken.

Deuteronomy 18:22

A prophet's message was validated by the accurate fulfillment of his prophecies. He had to be 100% correct—there was no room for error.

But a prophet who presumes to speak in my name anything I have not commanded him to say, or a prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, must be put to death.

Deuteronomy 18:20

In other words, a prophet had to be 100% right or he was dead. Obviously such a system discouraged "would be" false prophets.
